WORKING THROUGH A PANDEMIC

September 19, 2023

What was it like still working through lockdown in the midst of a global pandemic? Well at the time it wasn't like we expected it to be fun to be honest. Let us start at the beginning. Just before the official lockdown in South Africa happened on the 27th of

THE VENN DIAGRAM OF JOY

September 15, 2023

The other day we were able to go for a game drive in our province due to the relaxing of the covid-19 lockdown rules, while we were out there looking at the animals, I made some coffee and started thinking about happiness and joy. I am going to be honest

COFFEE WITH THE PAST

September 14, 2023

I have a fascination with new discoveries and possibilities. Be it the existence of water on Mars, a new species of butterfly in the forests of Mozambique or a new fossil in the cradle of humankind. Either way I love the possibility that it holds and it sparks my imagination

KEEPING WARM THIS WINTER

May 23, 2022

As Autumn reminds us of the transition from summer to winter the last leaves that previously provided us with shade from the summer heat now lay on the ground. Daylight becomes shorter and temperatures cool significantly as a cold winter lies ahead for those in South Africa. During these cooler

DRINKING COFFEE IN AFRICA

May 17, 2021

Rushing through the streets of Moshi to get to a meeting on the other side of town, hawkers shouting their wares and local sales guys trying to sell me art and trinkets. It is hot and very humid with the equatorial sun giving me instant sunburn. Then a familiar aroma
